

CINDI CHRISTIE/STAFF

SOUND OF REVOLUTION

DRESSED IN period costume, Roy Wells of San Ramon, above center, describes the lives of American and British soldiers during his American Revolutionary War presentation at Wells Middle School in Dublin on Friday. He is flanked by Sarah Tesseo, who holds a Pennsylvania long rifle as she portrays the American militia, and British foot soldier Jacob Hicks, who holds a Brown Bess flintlock musket. Below, Wells Middle School students, from left, Jackie Haddad, Cody Headley, Noria Mitchell and Jennifer Groenewold scream as they react to the loud "bang" produced by a Brown Bess musket. The musket was loaded with a polystyrene cartridge designed to disintegrate as the weapon is fired.

